Tour America - especially Lorna - were great in organising the perfect holiday for us. Other travel agents seemed confused when we cited what we wanted whereas Tour America easily got exactly what we needed! The customer service we received was spectacular as it was easy to communicate changes or questions with quick email responses when necessary. We will happily recommend Tour America to others and hopefully use their services again in the future! Thank you!

The Pacific Coast Highway is known as one of the most scenic drives in the world. Starting at California's northern border in Oregon and stretching all the way down to San Diego, the route takes around ten hours to complete. However, we recommend you take your time as there's so much to see: stunning coastal views, seaside villages, untouched forests, vast vineyards and so much more!

SANTA CRUZ

Ninety minutes from San Francisco you'll find yourself in Santa Cruz. This ultra-mellow beach town along the Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk has an incredible old-school Americana vibe. Check out the lighthouse on the beach, the Big Dipper along the boardwalk and the beautiful beach. The Mystery Spot – a collection of strange phenomena from the last 70 years – also makes for an entertaining few hours. Head to Pacific Avenue for all kinds of vintage goodies, Palomar for night time salsa dancing, Wilder Ranch State Park for hiking and the Rio Theatre for local music. The Wharf is a great place to go for restaurants and shops and if you have the time you can go on a whale watching trip or fishing expedition.

MONTEREY

As you travel along the curve of the Californian coast you'll arrive in Monterey Bay. Here you can enjoy the stunning Point Lobos State Natural Reserve; chill at the Old Fisherman's Wharf or go shopping at Cannery Row. Whale watching, sailing, kayaking, golfing and biking are just some of the popular activities in Monterey. Make sure to drive along the scenic '17 Mile Drive' and have a wander around Carmel-by-the-Sea, a cute seaside village with shops, cafes and restaurants.

SAN LUIS OBISPO

In the middle of Central Coast wine country, San Luis Obispo stays true to the Californian way of life, nicknamed "The happiest place in the world". San Luis Obispo has all the perks of a life well lived on the California coast. There are over 30 wineries and tasting rooms in this area, together with extensive hiking and biking trails. Being quite a "foodie" community, the downtown San Luis Obispo will give you the opportunity to dine SLO style, with farm to table menus and local beer and wine. A must, whilst you are in the area, is to visit the famous Hearst Castle, renowned for being one of the most beautiful homes in the world and visited in its time by the Hollywood and political elite.

SANTA BARBARA

One of the most beautiful cities on the Pacific coast, Santa Barbara has it all – from the best local food and wine, to every outdoor activity you could want, and the weather to go with it. This city offers idyllic beaches and a great beach vibe! Stroll along the beautiful State Street, where you can indulge in the best shopping, eating and drinking. Just south of Santa Barbara is Lotus land, a 37 acre historic estate, with more than 14 distinct gardens intertwined to form one of the most spectacular botanic experiences in the USA.

HAWAII

ISLANDS

There's no place like Hawaii for natural beauty and culture. Hawaii the birthplace of modern surfing, the hula and Hawaii Regional Cuisine.

The country itself was once a seat of a royal kingdom and is home to the only royal palace on US soil. Hawaii's most unique feature is its aloha spirit: the warmth of Hawaii's people complements the Islands' perfect temperatures. Explore off-the-beaten-track destinations, from hidden beaches to small towns that you won't find on a postcard. Learn to surf, snorkel or kayak and don't forget to go to an authentic luau where you can get a taste of Hawaiian culture and watch the art of the hula. You'll find the itineraries on Hawaii are endless.

From romantic escapades to family fun, from whale watching to walking on a volcano, you can do it all or you can simply sit back and relax in the sun.

KAUAI is nicknamed "the Garden Isle" thanks to the lush tropical rainforest covering much of its surface. The dramatic cliffs and pinnacles of its Na Pali Coast have served as a backdrop for major Hollywood films, while the 10-mile-long Waimea Canyon and the Nounou Trails traversing the Sleeping Giant Ridge are hiking destinations.

THE BIG ISLAND The Island of Hawaii is larger than all the other better-known Hawaiian islands combined. Rental cars allow visitors to discover wonders from snow-capped mountains to rainforests and deserts. Best known for the Hawaii Volcano National Park, home to the longest volcanic eruption in recorded history, the Big Island caters for those who crave adventure and for those looking for luxury.

OAHU is home to the state capital and the majority of Hawaii's population. Features Waikiki, Pearl Harbor and the North Shore.

MAUI The second largest Hawaiian island features beautiful beaches, Haleakala National Park, Hana and great whale watching opportunities.

DANIEL'S TOP TIPS

Pearl Harbour is a must. Only 15min away from Waikiki Beach, make sure you take a day to experience the history of the infamous Harbour. Take a trip to Kualoa Ranch. Located on the North of Oahu, the ranch is home to movie sets of some of the most popular films like Jurassic Park and Kong: Skull Island as well as TV shows Lost and Hawaii 5-0.

HOWEVER, YOU SHOULD NOTE THAT REIMBURSEMENT OF THE COST OF A FLIGHT THAT FORMS PART OF YOUR HOLIDAY IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF YOUR HOLIDAY AIRLINE AND WILL NOT AUTOMATICALLY ENTITLE YOU TO REIMBURSEMENT OF THE COST OF YOUR HOLIDAY FROM US.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The Organiser shall not be liable for any damage caused to the Consumer by the failure to perform the contract or the improper performance of the contract where the failure or improper performance is due neither to any fault of the Organiser or Retailer acting on the Organiser's behalf nor that of another supplier of services because: (a) the failure which occurs in the performance of the contract is attributable to the Consumer (b) such failures are attributable to a third party unconnected with the provision of the services contracted for, and are unforeseeable or unavoidable: or- (c) such failures are due to (i) unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond the control of the Organiser, the Retailer acting on his behalf or the supplier of the services, even with all due care could not foresee or forestall.

In the case of damage other than death or personal injury or damage caused by defamation or by the wilful misconduct or gross negligence of the Organiser the amount of compensation which will be paid the Consumer will be limited to, in the case of an adult an amount equal double the inclusive price of the holiday to the adult concerned and in the case of a minor an amount equal to the inclusive price of the holiday to the minor concerned. The Organisers liability will not exceed any limitation applicable under any international convention governing or relating to the provision of the service complained of in the place of where they are performed or due to be performed, even if that convention has not been ratified or applied in the Republic of Ireland.

For international transport by air the provisions of the Warsaw Convention 1929 (including as amended by the Hague Protocol of 1955 and by any of the additional Montréal Protocol of 1975) or the Montréal Convention 1999 relating to the carriage of passengers and their luggage by air may apply, throughout the flight and during boarding and disembarkation. For international transport by water the provisions of the Athens Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their luggage by sea, 1974 (and any amendment thereto) may apply. In respect of rail travel, the Berne Convention 1961, in respect of carriage by road, the Geneva Convention 1973; and, in respect of hotels, the Paris Convention 1962 may apply.

For the avoidance of doubt, this means that the Organiser is to be regarded as having all benefits of any limitations of liability contained in any of these conventions or any other international conventions applicable to the Consumer's holiday. This information notice summarises the liability rules applied by Community air carriers as required by Community legislation and the Montréal Convention. Compensation in the case of death or injury There are no financial limits to the liability for passenger injury or death. For damages up to 100,000 Special Drawing Rights ("SDRs") (approximately €125,000) the air carrier cannot contest claims for compensation. Above that amount, the air carrier can defend itself against a claim by proving that it was not negligent or otherwise at fault.

Advance payments: If a passenger is killed or injured, the air carrier must make an advance payment, to cover immediate economic needs, within 15 days from the identification of the person entitled to compensation. In the event of death, this advance payment shall not be less than 16,000 SDRs (approximately €19,300).

Passenger delays: In the case of passenger delay, the air carrier is liable for damage unless it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible to take such measures. The liability for passenger delay is limited to 4,150 SDRs (approximately €5,000).

Baggage delays: In case of baggage delay, the air carrier is liable for damage unless it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible to take such measures. The liability for baggage delay is limited to 1,000 SDRs (approximately €1,200)

Destruction loss or damage to baggage: The air carrier is liable for destruction, loss or damage to baggage up to 1,000 SDRs (approximately €1,200). In the case of checked baggage, it is liable even if not at fault, unless the baggage was defective. In the case of unchecked baggage, the carrier is only liable only if at fault.

Higher limits for baggage: A passenger can benefit from a higher liability limit by making a special declaration at check-in and by paying a supplementary fee.

Complaints on baggage: If the baggage is damaged, delayed, lost or destroyed, the passenger must write and complain to the air carrier as soon as possible. In the case of damage to the checked baggage, the passenger must write and complain within seven days, and in the case of delay within 21 days, in both cases from the date on which the baggage was placed disposal.

Liability of contracting and actual carriers: If the air carrier actually performing the flight is not the same as the actual carrier, the passenger has the right to address a complaint or to make a claim for damages against either. If the name or code of an air carrier is indicated that air carrier is the contracting air carrier.

Time Limit for action: Any action in court to claim damages must be brought within two years from the date of arrival of the aircraft, or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived.

Basis for the information: The basis for the rules described above is the Montréal Convention of 28 May 1999, which is implemented in the Community by Regulation (EC) No. 2027/97 (as amended by Regulation (EC) No. 889/2002) and national legislation of the member states). A copy of the conditions of carriage applicable to the holiday and the Convention referred to above, can be supplied on request- In the event of any liability on the part of the Organiser for injury, illness or death, no payment will be made unless the following conditions are complied with: (i) the Consumer must advise the Organiser in relation to the injury or illness while the Consumer is at the resort and must also write to the Organiser within three months of the completion of the holiday; (ii) the Consumer must transfer any rights that the Consumer has, in respect of such injury, illness or death against any person to the Organiser; (iii) the Consumer must co-operate fully with the Organiser to enable the Organiser or its insurers to enforce such rights.

BOOKING TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR FLIGHTS ONLY

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The Package Holidays and Travel Trade Act, 1995 does not apply to this single travel service component [please see Introduction above]

1. CONTRACT:

Tour America is selling the tickets as agents for the airlines, which means the contract for the flight will be between you and the airline. Please note that for each ticket there are additional terms which are specific to that fare. Most instant purchase tickets and many non-instant purchase tickets once issued are non-refundable when cancelled. You are responsible for complying with any airline's terms in relation to check-in times, reconfirmation of flights or other matters. In relation to flight tickets, you are required to use all flight coupons in order of sequence, if this requirement is not met the airline may void the ticket.

2. THE CONDITIONS OF YOUR TICKET:

When you travel by air, your journey may be subject to certain international conventions such as the Warsaw Convention, Montréal Convention. You agree that the transport supplier's own 'Conditions of Carriage' will apply to you on that journey. When arranging this transportation for you, we rely on the terms and conditions contained within these international conventions and those 'Conditions of Carriage'. You acknowledge that all of these terms and conditions form part of your contract with us as well as with the transport company. A copy of any airline's terms and conditions are available on request. By asking us to confirm your booking, you are accepting that the terms of this agreement (and the conditions of any contract made with any airline) apply to your booking and the air travel you have booked.

We will tell you the identity of your air carrier at the time of booking and if it is not known at that time, or subsequently changes, you will be informed as soon as possible either by us or your airline no later than at check-in for your flight (or boarding if it is a connecting flight without check-in).

3. RESERVATIONS:

Be aware that certain airlines do not maintain "real time" seat availability in the airline reservations system to which we connect. Whilst every effort is made to reflect the true situation, instances may occur when airlines cancel sales. Tour America will advise you if this is the case and will endeavour to reinstate your booking.

4. TICKETS:

If it is not possible to get your flight tickets to you (e.g. because your travel date is imminent) we may insist that you have an "e-ticket" or a TOD (ticket on departure) generated. A TOD is when you will have to pick up your ticket at your point of departure. We will ensure you know exactly where to pick up your tickets. Where an airline provides e-ticketing on a specific route this will be the only ticketing option made available. Electronic tickets are stored in the airline's computer rather than printed on paper. The service is similar to the traditional paper ticket process but eliminates the time and hassle associated with purchasing or exchanging a paper ticket. When you arrive at the airline check in desk you will be required to present an official form of identification (i.e. passport) to receive your boarding pass.

Please note that you must print out your confirmation page or confirmation email to show to the airline. Because your e-ticket is held in the airline's computer, you cannot forget it or lose it. More importantly, your e-ticket cannot be stolen, saving you the cost of a replacement ticket. You do not have to wait for your e-ticket to be delivered to you.

5. FLIGHT RECONFIRMATION:

All onward and return flights must be reconfirmed with the relevant airlines at least 72 hours prior to the commencement of that leg of the journey unless specifically informed otherwise by that airline. Tour America accepts no responsibility for bookings cancelled due to non compliance with rules set by that particular airline. Tour America also take no responsibility for any flight rescheduling en route.

6. PASSPORTS/VISAS/HEALTH REQUIREMENTS:

Tour America is very happy to inform you of current documentation requirements if you so require. It is incumbent upon you to ensure that you meet the passport, visa, health requirements of the countries you wish to visit and those that you transit (even if it is for a plane change). Many countries require that your passport should be valid for a period of (a minimum) six months from the date of arrival into that country. Tour America does not accept any responsibility if you should be denied boarding or deported due to non-fulfilment of the above.

7. CANCELLATION / AMENDMENTS:

If you need to change or cancel your travel plans it is your responsibility to notify Tour America in writing of such request. Some tickets are non-refundable. In some instances some tickets can be amended for a change fee, plus any applicable penalties. Some airlines do not allow changes. Tour America applies an administration fee of €150.00 per booking for any modifications, changes or cancellations to fares. This will be regardless of the price or face value of the fare. In addition to the Tour America charges, most airlines also have a penalty or cancellation fee for any changes or cancellations to fares.

8. REFUNDS:

If you want to cancel your journey it is important that you notify us in writing with utmost urgency. This enables us to cancel your reservation with the airline. If you already have your ticket please submit it to us. Tickets must be sent to:
Tour America, 62/63 Middle Abbey Street, Dublin 1, Ireland

On receipt of the ticket we will send you an acknowledgement that we have received it. Those tickets which are refundable or cancelled by us will be processed and refunded back to your credit card in approximately 16 weeks from our receipt of the ticket. Some tickets may need to be submitted to the airline for the cancellation and/or refund to be authorised. In this event your refund request may take longer, but we will advise you in our acknowledgement of the expected turnaround period. Please note that most airlines do not refund on part used tickets. Tickets which are returned more than 1 year from date of issue are classified as expired tickets and must be submitted to the airline for their authority to refund.

9. LOST TICKETS:

If you lose your tickets, it may be possible to re-issue them for a fee. The amount payable will depend on the circumstances of the loss and how close to the travel date you discover it. However, not all tickets can be re-issued; you are recommended to have sufficient insurance cover. Tickets will be dispatched to you in accordance with your instructions and we accept no responsibility for their delivery. Lost tickets which cannot be reissued are refunded at the sole discretion of the airline; these refunds can take up to one year to be authorised.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY:

As Tour America acts as agent this will mean that it will have no contractual liability to you in respect of the operation of the flight. This means that in the event of you suffering personal injury, illness or death as a result of any act or omission of your airline or you having any complaint about the quality of the services provided or having any other complaint at all, your sole right of redress will be against the airline who provided such service and that we will be under no liability at all (whether in contract, tort or otherwise).

Without prejudice to the foregoing, in the event that we are found liable on any basis whatsoever in relation to your booking our maximum liability to you, if Tour America is found to have been at fault in relation to any service that Tour America provided (as opposed to any service provided by the airline for whom Tour America is not responsible) is limited to the cost of the booking in question.

We do not exclude or limit liability for death or personal injury that arises as a result of our negligent act or omission or our employees whilst acting in the course of their employment. We shall not be liable for any indirect, special or consequential loss, including economic loss, which term shall include loss of profits, loss of use of profits, business, revenue, and goodwill or anticipated savings.

SECTION 3: Events & Event Tickets

When we book an Event ticket for you, our responsibility is limited to the arranging of the tickets. We do not have any responsibility for the supply, provision or conduct of the Event itself, and those responsible are not our suppliers. The tickets may contain important information and conditions, which you must read carefully. Tickets are non-transferable unless otherwise stated. Unfortunately, whilst rare, Events can be cancelled, postponed, rescheduled, abandoned or curtailed at short notice or even without notice. We make every effort to obtain and pass on to you up to date information regarding Events, participants and tour leaders/celebrities. This information is based on details supplied to us but we cannot guarantee its accuracy or that changes will not occur. The cancellation or alteration of an Event, the non-appearance of a participant or advertised participant/celebrity or other changes are entirely outside our control and outside our contractual responsibility and we cannot accept any responsibility for them. No refund or compensation or other sum will be paid by us. We cannot therefore accept any responsibility or pay any refund, compensation or other sum for any changes to or cancellation of any advertised or confirmed programme or itinerary, even where this involves the cancellation of an Event, which may have been your main reason for making your booking. In some cases we will not be able to alter Arrangements and we will continue to supply the original Arrangements, which we have agreed to supply you. This applies even where there has been the cancellation of an Event, which may have been your main reason for booking. In addition to the above, please also note the following important information:

A1. VENUE ADMISSION & FACILITIES

Admission to venues is controlled by the Event organiser, venue officials and/or the police. Where we provide you with a ticket for an Event, our responsibility is limited to the provision of the ticket itself and this does not guarantee your admission to the venue. Such circumstances are beyond our control and we accept no responsibility if this happens. We accept no liability whatsoever for either the quality of any Event or venue facilities, or for any injury sustained in the venue or in the vicinity of the venue or during the Event (except where such injury is caused by our negligence). Venue and Ticket regulations apply which will be stated on your ticket or available on request from the Event organiser. Security for entry to venues may be strict. A3. USE OF EVENT TICKETS

For some Events, the Tickets we sell are for seats within a specific area/location of the venue. Where this applies details will be advised at the time of booking.
