

CLASSIC FALL FOLIAGE

New England Fall Tours - Globus® North America

Mother Nature meets our Founding Fathers on this electrifying fall foliage tour through historic and bucolic New England.

As you witness the blazing reds, oranges, and yellows of autumn's turning leaves, you'll also be introduced to the country's early trailblazers and most curious of characters. Trace the steps of Paul Revere, John Adams, and Benjamin Franklin through the storied streets of Boston.

Walk the halls of Cornelius Vanderbilt's opulent Newport mansion. Feast your eyes on the world's largest collection of Rockwell originals at the Norman Rockwell Studio & Museum in Stockbridge.

Yet no palette is as bright as the fiery leaves of the oaks, poplars, and maples that line the striking Maine coastline, adorn the rocky headlands of Acadia National Park, and shelter the quaint, covered-bridge countryside of Vermont and New Hampshire.

This is leaf peeping and sightseeing at its absolute finest.
